“When Everything Is Going Wrong” — Worksheet

Do you ever find yourself thinking, “How am I supposed to stay positive when everything around me is unraveling?” We know that positive vibration is supposed to bring us more positive experiences ... but seriously ... it’s sooo difficult to hold a positive vibration when everything seems to be going wrong.

In this episode, we’ll be talking about how some people create by default, and others create with purpose. And why everything appears to be going wrong when we create by default. But that when things go wrong it’s an opportunity to put them right ... by connecting with a force that will help our desires manifest.

3 Takeaways

1) It isn’t that everything is going wrong; it’s that we’re filled with negative emotion ABOUT everything that seems to be going wrong ... instead of listening to our Higher Self who knows the path to get us where we want to be.

2) It’s not what happens in life that causes us to be upset or feel negative. It’s that our expectations were unfulfilled. We had an expectation, and we thought that expectation had to be met in order for us to feel happy.

3) When we allow negative energy, we’re creating by default ... we aren’t creating on-purpose.

Biggest Mistake to Avoid

Not following universal law. If we can shift our positive vibration FIRST, according to universal law, then the manifestation MUST follow.

Recommended Action

Create and connect with positive energy (then we aren’t creating from resistance).
