Dissolve the obstacles in your path and bring success TO YOU!

Rémy Chausse

There's a 95% Chance You'll Get There

Have you ever felt unhinged within your own journey? Wondering if the success you're seeking is going to do you in before you even get there? It seems like you've tried everything, and you just don't know if you'll ever find this elusive success ... this next level that you're craving.

If you'd like to know that you could increase your chances of succeeding by 95%, then this episode is for you!

The Formula

- 10% of people who simply say "that's a good idea" will actually make the change.
- 25% of people who committed and said, "I'll do it" will make a change.
- 40% of people who said when they would do it, and they set a timeframe, will actually change.
- 50% of people who set a specific plan of how to do it, those that made a blueprint or a roadmap, will actually make a change.
- 60% of people who committed to somebody else that they would do it, will actually change.
- A whopping 95% of people who set a specific time or event to share the progress with someone else, they had a whopping 95% chance of change, and they'll actually do it.

Assignment:

1. Choose three seemingly impossible goals
2. Narrow it to ONE
3. Then apply the 95% Formula, ending with a specific event to share your progress
